

THE DOCTOR says "drink beer" when you're worn out and run down; because good beer is a food and a tonic. If it will strengthen the weak and the nervous isn't it reasonable to say that it will keep you strong?

The virtue of Primo is not in the alcohol. There is only 2 1-2 per cent of that.

It is in the malted barley - a digested food. And in the hops---a tonic and an aid to sleep.

There is nothing more healthful than Primo Beer; because it is rightly made and absolutely pure

THE PROPER DRINKING OF PRIMO BEER
---NOT THE ABUSE OF IT---IS GOOD FOR THE WEAK AND THE WELL.

SOCIAL NOTES

Society and Dog Show

The coming dog show of the Hawaiian Kennel Club will occur July 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd at Palace Square Park, King and Merchant streets. In London, New York, Chicago and Boston it is always a society event, and I understand that several ladies socially prominent intend appearing in the new street gowns. Honolulu is slowly awakening to the fact that the breeding of dog dogs is an interesting and profitable occupation. It is a great relief to many fair owners of good animals that the show is in the open air. The dogs certainly were not too comfortable at the last show and all that has been remembered. A pleasing factor as an influence, at the last show is that there have been quite a number of Island-bred puppies in the sporting dog puppy class. Mr. D. P. R. Isenberg, the president of the club, has long been known as a breeder of valuable animals and his dogs will undoubtedly take a prominent place in the forthcoming show. The entries close at 9 p. m. on Saturday, July 11, and no pedigree is required to show your dog.

Punahou Celebrates

The Punahou Alumni Association held their annual reunion on the college grounds yesterday afternoon, and judging by those who attended all Honolulu seemed interested in the affair. Signal flags and large ones as well, gave the grounds a festive appearance and the large tables, upon which were heaped luscious specimens of Island fruits, temptingly displayed--a practical demonstration of what can be done here. There was an able address by Judge Perry read by Mr. Arthur Alexander, and a speech by Rev. H. W. Chamberlain. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was a recitation by pretty Alice Spalding and dainty little Kinau Wilder and her brother James sang a French song in their inimitable way. Margery Wakefield and Ezra Crane in costume, gave a spirited Irish song. A presentation of silver was most deservedly made to Miss A. L. Hasforth, who will soon visit her home in Germany. Mrs. Arthur Wall was in charge of the coconut booth, assisted by Mrs. Richard Cooke, Misses Beatrice Castle and Alice Cooke. Mrs. J. S. Walker's booth was also picturesquely arranged and there were shown thirty-nine different kinds of mangoes. Miss B. Ruth Young had the miscellaneous fruit booth, and among the specimens was a papaya weighing ten and a half pounds. There were forty-one different fruits exhibited. Mrs. Alonzo Gartley had the banana and pineapple section. Needless to say one's mouth literally watered at sight of the tempting display. The lemonade booth, an impromptu factor, decorated with artistic citrus boughs and fruits, was presided over by Mrs. W. Babbitt. President Griffiths' address was listened to with pleasure, and a jolly game of baseball, captained by Clarence Cooke, completed a most enjoyable afternoon. To Mr. Gerrit Wilder, who had full charge of the affair, its success can be attributed. His zeal and untiring energy in this good cause is thoroughly well known and the results which he always obtains are wonderful.

High School Dance

Good music, much happy laughter, and many gay and pretty faces, assured the success of the High School dance, given at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening. Flags and bunting draped the circular lanai which is always so cool and delightful for dancing. Refreshments of a delicious nature were served and lemonade in an enormous punch bowl allayed the thirst which always ends from violent exercise. It was a thoroughly successful and delightful occasion.

Picnic Lunch

A delightful picnic luncheon was given on Wednesday by Mrs. Arthur Wall at the Lewers' Waikiki place in honor of Mrs. Arthur Wood. The rooms were beautifully decorated with ascension lilies, palms and greens, and the lanai was a bower of beauty. Among the guests were Mrs. H. Waterhouse, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Achilles, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. W. Babbitt, Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Mrs. Gartley.

Who Is Madame Arral?

In commenting upon the appearance of Madame Arral the "Critic," Adelaide, says: "She travelled by mail boat to Melbourne and took the Princess theatre for one night. Then Melbourne was conquered. No one had heard the like of her singing. Big audiences for six nights followed. The Critic can confidently say that her voice is the equal of Dolores and Madame Melba's as far as the lighter work is concerned. Marvellous range--she can take E flat with the ease that any other performer can take the lower G. In the lighter or Continental style of music her equal has never been heard in Adelaide. So marvellous are her powers that the Critic asks 'Who is this Madame Arral? That she is known to fame under some other name is beyond question--probably some great Continental singer masquerading under another name. Later on the mystery may be cleared up. To show that we are entirely unbiased in this matter since her last concert the Critic has taken no advertisement for her manager."

Miss Adele Morgan's marriage to Mr. John Fleming will occur on September 2. The popular young girl has received many interesting souvenirs of her friends' affection during the past few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Brinckerhoff gave a pretty dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Marx, who are so soon sailing for Europe. Those asked to meet them were Mr. and Mrs. Clive Davies, Mr. and Mrs. von Holt, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou. Roses formed the centerpiece, and corsage bouquets were at each plate.

One of the charming dinners of the week was given on Thursday by Judge and Mrs. W. L. Stanley. The table was artistically decorated with roses, and the guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphris, British Consul and Mrs. Forster, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davies, Miss Stanley and Mr. David Anderson. Bridge was played during the evening.

Madame Blanche Arral will attract many to the Opera House on Monday evening. She comes highly spoken of and her performance promises variety. She will appear in many magnificent costumes and sing from grand opera and other light operas.

One of the prettiest and jolliest dances imaginable was given at the Moana hotel on Monday evening by the High School. There were hundreds of guests who tripped the light fantastic toe until a late hour.

Mrs. Alonzo Gartley was the genial hostess of a picnic at the Peninsula on Tuesday for Mrs. Arthur Wood, who is being so much feted. The day was perfect and the guests were delightfully entertained.

Mrs. Lewton-Brain was the hostess of a surprise bridge supper last evening in honor of her husband's natal day. The evening passed all too quickly, and the rubbers were unusually gay ones.

Lieutenant Commander Moses and Mrs. Moses will be pleasant additions to the local society set. Lieutenant Commander Moses succeeds Captain Carter.

The Young hotel roof garden has been well patronized these warm evenings. It will be a delightful meeting place during the Fleet's visit.

Mrs. Schaefer gave a luncheon at Roseband on Tuesday at which were twelve guests. She has cards out for a large at home next week.

Mrs. James B. Castle is still far from well, and has a trained nurse. She will probably remain at her country place several weeks.

Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou were the host and hostess of an elaborate dinner in honor of Secretary Garfield last week.

Mrs. Harrison and Miss Rosenfeld of Davenport, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse in Nuanu.

Mrs. Edward Damon will return to Moanalua on Saturday after several weeks outing at the beach.

Miss Annie Park, who is still on Tantalus, is improving rapidly. Mrs. Wallbridge is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall are at their Waikiki residence for the summer months.

Mrs. F. Lowrey was the hostess of a tea in honor of Mrs. Arthur Wood this week.

Mrs. W. O. Smith gave a pretty luncheon for Mrs. H. P. Baldwin on Tuesday.

Mrs. Parsons is at Fort Shafter. She arrived in the Sherman.

Miss Nina Adams sailed in the Alameda for the Coast.

MAUI FLEET HOOKUP

(Special to the Bulletin)
WAILUKU, Maui, June 26.--The Fleet Hookup Committee, headed by District Magistrate W. A. McKay, will meet in Wailuku court house this Saturday afternoon for the purpose of arranging a plan for the hookup to be held at Lahaina. Some of the members of the committee seem to think that the best view of the Battleship Fleet with their convoys will be obtained from Kahaialoa Point, as the ships pass down in squadron formation on their way to Honolulu, while the four ships will part company and come to Lahaina to give many of Uncle Sam's patriotic citizens on Maui an opportunity to judge of the greatness of the American Fleet.
